LTK - Health Science Teacher (2010 - 2011)

TEACHER TRAINING PROGRAMME IN HEALTH SCIENCES (nursing science) 2010-2011

1. General descriptions

Qualification awarded

The teacher training in health sciences (nursing science) is based on the regulation of university degrees (794/2004). The education leads to degree of Bachelor of Health Sciences (BHSc) 180 ECTS and also to degree of Master of Health Sciences (MHSc) 120 ECTS. The Institute of Health Sciences is in charge of managing the education.

Admission requirements

The right to study in the teacher training in health sciences (nursing science) can be received in a yearly held student choosing process. There will be the students selected to the teacher training in health sciences (nursing science) to pass both the Bachelor's degree program (BHSc) and to the Master's degree program (MHSc).

Educational and professional goals

The goals for the lower academic degree (Bachelor of Health Sciences):

The education must give to the student:

- 1) The basic knowledge of the field of Health Sciences and the capacity to follow the development of the field
- 2) Capability for scientific thinking and scientific working methods
- 3) Qualifications for higher academic degree and continuous learning
- 4) Personal capacity for using the knowledge in work
- 5) Sufficient communication and language skills

The goals for the higher academic degree ( Master of Health Sciences )

The education must give to the student:

- 1) Good knowledge of the overall of the major studies and basics of the minor studies
- 2) Capability of applying scientific information and methods
- 3) Capability to act as a professional and developer of one's own subject
- 4) Capability for scientific post-graduate education
- 5) Good communication and language skills

The purpose of the Teacher Training of Health Sciences is that the student will attain expertise in teaching and development tasks in the field of health and social care. After finishing the studies the student can

- 1) work independently as teacher and pedagogue,

- 2) evaluate the development of one's own field of studies and adjust scientific information and methods to the work,
- 3) use research to plan the work and education of one's field.

Access to further studies

Higher academic degree (MHSc) gives eligibility for post-graduate education for Licentiate of Health Sciences and for Doctor of Health Sciences. To apply for a post-graduate student, student must leave post-graduate study plan for the department before 30.4. (Institute of Health Sciences/5HOIT, PL 5000, 90014 University of Oulu). The selection criteria for post-graduate education can be seen in the web-pages of the Institute of Health Sciences.

2. Course structure

The Bachelor of Health Sciences degree consists of 180 credits. The degree consists of general studies, basic and intermediate studies of a major subject, studies of a minor subject and optional studies. Intermediate studies of the major subject include a Bachelor's thesis. The Master of Health Sciences degree consists of advanced studies of the major subject, minor subjects and the optional studies. The advanced studies of the major subject include a Master's thesis.

Major studies in the teacher training of health sciences

Nursing science is the major subject in the teacher training of health sciences. The basic, intermediate and advanced studies are the same as in the master degree in health sciences.

Minor subjects

The minor subject of the teacher training of health sciences is the didactic of nursing science (60 credits). The didactic of nursing science studies (60 credits) are included partially in Bachelor's and in Master's degree. The Bachelor of health sciences includes the basic studies of educational science (25 credits) and the Master of health sciences includes the intermediate studies of didactics (35 credits).

Optional studies

Optional studies are basic, intermediate or advanced studies from some other science field that are done in the University of Oulu or in some other university. In the teacher training of health sciences student chooses (30 credits) optional studies from the other faculties or other universities for the Bachelor's degree and (25 credits) for the Master's degree. If a student has a higher vocational diploma he/she will be credited for 30 credits.

The training programme for the teacher training of health sciences can be seen in figure X.

Assessment of studies
Bachelor's and Master's thesis

For the Bachelor's degree student will establish Bachelor's thesis that relates to his/her major subject. For the Master's degree student will establish Master's thesis. Connected to the thesis work student must take a written maturity examination. It shows student's knowledge of the field of the thesis and also tests student's skills in Finnish or Swedish. Student does not have to prove his/her Finnish or Swedish skills in maturity for Master's thesis if he/she has done that in Bachelor's. Student has to prove his/her acquaintance with the field and subject of the thesis. The criteria for evaluating Bachelor's and Master's thesis can be seen from the web pages of Institute of Health Sciences.

Examination and assessment regulations

The studies that belong to the didactics of nursing science (60 credits) are evaluated using a scale from 0 to 5, or by pass/fail. If a study module is evaluated using a pass/fail scale, student must attain at least level 3 (good knowledge). The didactics of the nursing science (60 credits) are valued as average of study modules.

Study materials and way of performance are announced in the presentations of each module. Undone assignments have to be done during the next two semesters at the latest. In other case a study module must be carried out again. Further instructions or possible changes in performing the study modules are informed in the beginning of the module.
