Achieving this kind of proficiency during a course unit that lasts for only one semester requires that the student has already achieved the necessary starting proficiency level prior to taking the course.

Required proficiency level:

The required starting proficiency level for students of all faculties is a grade of 7 or higher from the Swedish studies at secondary school (B-syllabus) or equivalent knowledge AND a passing grade from the proficiency test held at the beginning of the course unit. Based on this proficiency test the students are directed to brush up on their language skills if it is deemed necessary; mastering basic vocabulary and grammar is a prerequisite to achieving the necessary language proficiency for the various communication situations one faces in professional life.

If a student has not completed Swedish studies (B-language) at secondary school with a grade of 7 or higher, or his/her language skills are otherwise lacking, he/she must achieve the required proficiency level BEFORE taking this compulsory Swedish course unit.

ECTS Credits:

2 credits

Language of instruction:

Swedish

Timing:

Students of Architecture: autumn semester of the first year of studies.

Students of Electrical Engineering and Computer Science and Engineering: autumn or spring semester of the first year of studies.

Students of Industrial Engineering and Management and Environmental Engineering: autumn semester of the third year of studies.

Students of Process Engineering and Mechanical Engineering: autumn or spring semester of the third year of studies.

Learning outcomes:

Upon completion of the course unit the student should be able to read and understand texts from his/her academic field and make conclusions based on them. The student should be able to write typical professional emails and short reports. He/she should be able to carry himself/herself according to Swedish etiquette when acting as host or guest. The student should also be able to discuss current events and special field-specific matters, use the vocabulary of education and plan and give short oral presentations relating to his/her own field.

Contents:

Communicative oral and written exercises, which aim to develop the student's Swedish proficiency in areas relevant to his/her academic field and future professional tasks. The student practises oral presentation and pronunciation. Situational exercises done individually and in pairs and groups. Discussions in small groups. Current texts about the student's special field. Written exercises relating to the student's professional field. Practising presentation skills.

Learning activities and teaching methods:

1 x 90 minutes of contact teaching per week and self-directed study, 52 hours per course.

Target group:

See Timing

Recommended or required reading:

Study material subject to a charge will be provided by the teacher.

Assessment methods and criteria:

The course unit focuses on improving both oral and written language skills and requires active attendance and participation in exercises, which also require preparation time. 100% attendance is required. The course unit tests both oral and written language skills.

Grading:

Oral and written language proficiencies are tested separately and assessed using the so called KORU-criteria (publication of HAMK University of Applied Sciences, 2006). Separate grades will be awarded for the successful completions of both oral and written portions of the course unit: the possible passing grades are satisfactory skills and good skills (see language decree 481/03). The grades are based on continuous assessment and testing.

CEFR B2 - C1

Status:

This module is taken as the first part of Tekniikan englanti 3 (for students in the Technical Faculty).

Required proficiency level:

English must have been the A1 or A2 language at school or equivalent English skills acquired otherwise.

If you need to take English, but lack this background, please get in touch with the Languages and Communication contact teacher for your department to discuss individual solutions.

ECTS Credits:

2 ECTS credits (The workload is 53 hours: about 2 hours of class work and 2 hours of homework per week during the autumn term.)

Language of instruction:

English

Timing:

weekly lessons throughout the autumn term.

Learning outcomes:

By the end of the module, you are expected

- to have demonstrated an ability to give an effective presentation of a product, company and process
- to have demonstrated appropriate strategies and techniques for learning English efficiently
- to be able to explain the influence of language on social and intercultural relationships in your future professional activities

Contents:

PET aims to help you develop a range of professional language skills related to your own specialist field.

Scheduled for the first autumn of your studies, the PET module has a strong focus on developing speaking skills, and thus gives you an excellent opportunity to get to know your fellow students while working in pairs and groups.

The experiences of communication gained in class, mediated by critical reflection on the nature of language and intercultural communication, offer you the chance of extending your interpersonal and intercultural skills through the medium of English. In addition, the module helps you to direct your own learning, encouraging you to reflect upon which aspects of your English you would like to develop further during your studies, and upon developing strategies and techniques for effective language learning.

During PET, you will participate in simulated professional events such as a trade fair and factory tour, and give process/company presentations.

Other information:

All students are required to attend the first meeting of the course unit so the work groups can be formed and work started in a timely and efficient manner. When signing up for the course unit, you should keep in mind that completing it requires a responsible attitude and a strong commitment to the work because the teamwork-based exercises rely heavily on the participation and activity of the students.

If the student is involved in the University's student associations or functions in a position of trust in university government, student union administration or Oulun Teekkariyhdistys ry (or in its subordinate guilds), he/she may be relieved of some of the group communication exercises. These compensatory actions must always be agreed upon separately with the course unit's teacher. The student must present an official statement from a person in charge of the governing body or association, which details the student's tasks and involvement with that body or association. Participation that took place over five years ago does not entitle the student to any compensation.
